The Ghost Adventures Drinking Game!

Created by lovers of the paranormal, history & the unknown.

The next best thing to conducting an investigation is sitting back and enjoying this show, often laughing along with the guys over the chaos during a typical episode. Created with appreciation for the show!

Do You Even Drink, Bro?

No, booze isn't mandatory. Enjoy a mocktail, other drink, candy, or do push-ups until you can't quite fit into your t-shirt, Bagans-style! It's just about interacting with a show we all enjoy!

The Rules, drink when...

One of the witnesses they interview seems less than reliable - There's an over-the-top reenactment, especially if it's disrespectful - A member of the crew is possessed - A historical fact is incorrect - Zak is the only one wearing a respirator - Aaron has to do something solo - They bend over backward to make a random word fit their narrative - Zak waxes poetic - They overreact to a stick figure on the SLS/Kinect - Someone gets scratched - Aaron makes "Aaron face" (pictured above) - Zak mispronounces a word - Stone Tape Theory is mentioned - The DEBUNKED graphic appears - Each time evidence is replayed more than 3 times - Someone feels a cold spot or a phantom touch - Camera or other gear is knocked over - An investigator "tough talks"/provokes a ghost

Celebrate drink when:

The EVP actually sounds like what they say it sounds like
There's really cool visual evidence

Each member of your party select 1 or 2 of the following to be your "trigger" word or phrase: "Whoa!" "Dude" "Bro" "Demon/Demonic" "Oh my God!" "Portal/Vortex" "Quiet!" "Debunk" "Did you hear that?" "Was that you?"
